

about the BCFC

Beder Center for Future Studies and Consultancy (BCFC) is a leading regional-class provider of training, education, research, professional development programs and financial services industry studies in Horn of Africa. The BCFC was established to contribute the improvement of the region, developing capacity of the society, educationally and technically, by undertaking a proper research, teaching and training activities.

The (BCFC) was founded in 2008 by a group of committed specialists from different educational backgrounds.

Beder center have provided many training programs, researches and consultant papers in various topics toward several institutions in the brief period of his life.