

Consultaion fields

This Division will provide consultation in the following areas:

Lawful trading in compliance with Islamic religion.Offering consultation to the new projects that will be implemented in the country.

Giving managerial consultations, designing the most suitable modern organizational structures for companies and assisting in establishing companies in Somaliland/Somalia.

Consultations regarding education and curriculums.Advising graduating students from Universities/Colleges about thesis work, research design, and providing with necessary support until such students finalize their academic papers.Consultancy to all dimensions of life, like economy, political and environment

.