

Mission & Vision

BCFC aims are: To establish and provide a well organized institution, with a new vision for education, training, research and professional development programs. Our strategic plan for the best participation of the human development, commits us to use the latest technology equipment, with the constants preserve the nation's religious and ethics. Providing high quality education based on international standard of modern studies, with collaborating of educational institutions, universities and research centers regionally and globally. Demonstrating in-depth researches touching social life requirement specially economical issues. Educational and technical assistance provided to all parties doing their researches, especially students when they are doing their academic thesis and researches. Continuous consultancy addressing education, businesses, social issues relating management and administration of companies. For the purpose of enabling coming generations to understand their region's nature and heritage, we will collect, organize and rewrite the previously records and written historical data of Somaliland/Somalia and the horn of Africa. Establishing a well facilitated library consisting a large books in deferent (hard copies) and E-library (soft books) which is a new service that has not yet been tried in the region